The safety and wellbeing of NEX's clients, visitors and employees is of paramount importance and remains our top priority.

NEX is closely monitoring the situation with Coronavirus (Covid-19) and advice provided by the Australian Government Department of Health. We are responding appropriately as the situation evolves and will provide further updates on our website here.

FOR VISITORS

If you have any questions or concerns about an event you are attending at NEX, please contact the event organisers directly.

FOR EVENT ORGANISERS

If you have any questions or concerns about an event you are organising at NEX, please contact your NEX Event Manager.

GENERAL INFORMATION

In response to the outbreak of Coronavirus (COVID-19) NEX has put in place all steps and precautions throughout the venue as recommended by the Australian Government Department for Health, to help ensure the safety of our visitors and team members. This includes:

- Placing hand sanitisers with supporting signage.
- Placing guidance on hand washing in bathrooms.
- Placing tissues and bins for their hygienic disposal.
- Thorough and regular sterilisation of surfaces, including bathrooms, benches, ATM machines and all touch points such as door handles, escalator rails, etc.
- Continued rigorous adherence to ISO and HACCP food safety management standards within all culinary services.

In line with official guidance for the general population, we are not recommending the use of face masks or thermal scanners at NEX.
